We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. Today we will start something new after the veneration of the cross at the end of Liturgy. For those who wish to do so, gather at the Royal Doors to read the post-communion prayers. We will do this at the end of each Liturgy.
2. On January 25, we will participate in a prayer service with the people of St. William Catholic Church, followed by a small reception in our social hall, followed a session in our church where I will speak to those present about Orthodoxy. If you can help, please see Fr. James.
3. Traditionally, house blessings are done in the period between the Theophany and the beginning of Lent. Please see Fr. James about setting a date.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. -Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
