We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. At 7:00 p.m. on January 25 we will share a prayer service with the people of St. William Catholic Church to observe the Week of Christian Unity. The service will be held at St. William, but afterwards everyone will come to St. Nicholas for a reception, followed by a talk about Orthodoxy to those from St. William. If you can attend please do so!
2. If you haven't done so, please see Fr. James about setting a date to bless your home.
3. Remember that we should aim to go to confession at least every six weeks, and more often if possible. The sacrament of confession is the best way to clear our life and our conscience of things that hinder our faith.
4. Upcoming at St. Nicholas:

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. -Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
