We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. Great Lent marks an extremely important time of the liturgical year for Orthodox Christians. Now is the time to think about your preparations for Lent, which should include increased prayer and spiritual reading. The church will be providing a daily devotional by St. Theophan the Recluse. If you want some ideas for other reading or for a prayer rule see Fr. James.
2. This coming Wednesday evening we will start a new adult education class. We will look at a number of themes arising from the Orthodox observance of Great Lent. Once Lent starts these will move to Friday evening after the Paraklesis to the Theotokos is served. Everyone is welcome.
3. This coming week is fast free. Enjoy! Our next such week will be the one following Pascha.

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. -Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
