We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. Copies of our book for Lenten reading, Victory in the Unseen Warfare, should arrive during the next week. There will be a copy for each family. We will use this book as the basis for our Friday night study during Lent. For those who are unable to make it to our Friday night service, I encourage you to read it during Lent.
2. Next Saturday we serve the first of a series of Liturgies for those who have reposed. Please make sure we have the names and date of death of your reposed loved ones.
3. We need olive oil! It need not be extra virgin. Plus, don't forget our food drive during Lent.

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. - Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
