

Announcements

We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. With the beginning of Lent we will move our study of Lenten topics to a new night. Instead of Wednesday evening, after our Friday evening service, we will share a Lenten meal of soup and bread (non-gluten included!). While eating, we will discuss Lent, and what it means for us in various ways. Please join us for this study! If you can provide soup and bread on a Friday night, please let me know.
2. It has been over a year since our last call for olive oil, and only now are we running out. To help us replenish our supply, please consider donating olive oil (plain, not extra-virgin) to the church for use in our lamps.

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. -Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
