

Announcements

We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. With the beginning of Lent we will begin a new study. After our Friday evening service, we will share a Lenten meal of soup and bread (non-gluten included!). While eating, we will work our way through Frederica Mathewes-Green's fine book on the penitential Canon of St. Andrew of Crete. Please join us for this study!
2. St. Nicholas needs you! Each of us can render active service to God: We need people to read the epistle during services, the hours before Liturgy and post-communion prayers after Liturgy, or think about your own idea. If you have a desire to help out in any way, please see Fr. James.

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. -Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
