

Announcements

We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. Beginning on Wednesday and Friday of this week, we add the penitential prayer of St. Ephraim the Syrian to our daily prayer, increasing to daily once Lent begins. The prayer can be found in the insert to the bulletin.
2. Next Sunday is, after the major feasts of the Church, the most important Sunday of the liturgical year, as we celebrate the rite of forgiveness and enter into Great Lent. Please make every effort to be here for that important service.
3. After today, we will fast from meat until Pascha on May 5. For the next week, however, we are free to eat anything else, including fish and dairy.
4. Fr. James will be in Pennsylvania this week. If the need arises, however, he can be reached on his cell phone (828-361-1464) or via e-mail at fr.james.blomeley@gmail.com.

Post Communion Prayers

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. - Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
