We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

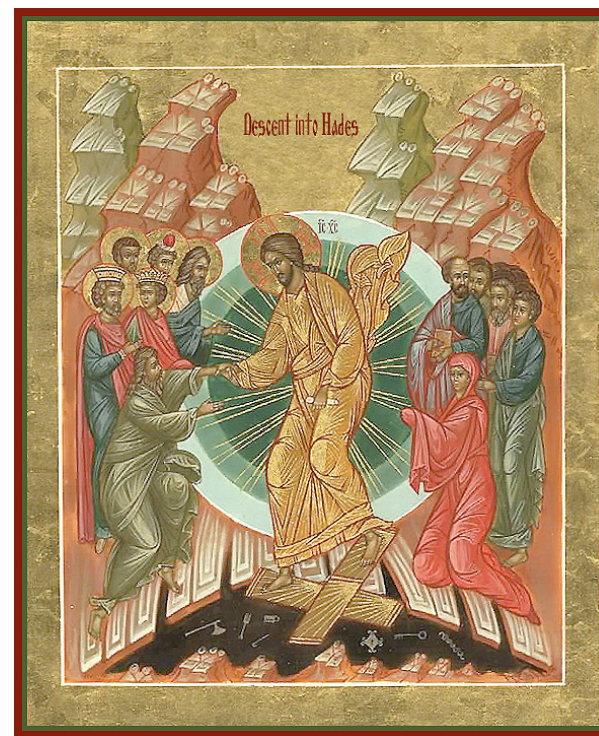

1. Christ is Risen! Christos voskrese! Christos anesti! We have arrived at the Feasts of Feasts, the most Holy of Days, the pinnacle of our joy. On behalf of Pani and myself, thank you for all that you have done during Lent and Holy Week. We are greatly blessed by each of you!
2. After Liturgy, there will be Festal Anointing, followed by the blessing of the Artos and of baskets. We will then enjoy an agape meal, as we celebrate the breaking of the Fast.
3. From Tuesday until next Saturday, Fr. James will be gone to a convocation for Diocesan priests at Camp Nazareth, near Mercer, Pennsylvania. Should something arise during that time, do not hesitate to call Father on his cell phone.
4. In light of Father's absence, there will no services during Bright Week. We will have Divine Liturgy for St. Thomas Sunday next Sunday at 10:00, and then resume our usual schedule of services.

Christ is risen! Indeed He is risen!
Christos voskrese! Voistinnu Voskrese!
Christos Anesti! Alithos anesti!
