

Announcements

We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. We are considering the idea of beginning to serve at least a chanted service of matins on Sunday mornings. Before we can do that, however, we need to make sure that we have enough people committed to the project to sustain it. If you are interested in helping, or would like more information, please let Fr. James know.
2. In your daily prayer rule, please remember your brothers and sisters at St. Nicholas, including our catechumens. Prayer for each other is an essential part of our life in Christ.
3. Remember that our food collection continues even though we are no longer in Lent. When shopping, keep in mind our obligation to love our neighbor and pick up something for those less fortunate than ourselves.
4. A new sign up sheet for coffee hour is available. Please try to sign up to occasionally serve and provide food for one of our upcoming Sundays.
5. Upcoming at St. Nicholas:

Wednesday, April 29	5:45 p.m. – Inquirers' Class 7:00 p.m. – Small compline
Saturday, May 2	5:00 p.m. – Vespers
Sunday, May 3	Sunday of the Paralytic (Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom, 10:00 am)

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. -Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
