

Announcements

We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. If all goes well, our new icon, the Theotokos of the Sign, may be installed during the coming week. This isn't set in stone, but there is a reasonable chance of it. I'll get word out to everyone when I get word of when the installation will take place.
2. Some of you have asked if there will be a reception following the Lyra concert, and if we can offer food. The answer is yes, and Fr. George has told me that those interested in contributing anything should call Pat Dashner (828-494-2683), who is coordinating that. For everyone, please mark that date on your calendar. Invite your friends and family to come and hear!

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. -Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
