

Announcements

We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. Those who wish to participate in the reading of post-communion prayers please gather before the icon of the Theotokos at the iconostasis after the veneration of the cross at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy.
2. A new sign up sheet for coffee hour is available. Please try to sign up to occasionally serve and provide food for one of our upcoming Sundays.
3. Starting on Sunday, June 5, we will begin an adult Sunday school study of the Book of Revelations. It is the one book of the New Testament that we do not read in church, but you cannot live in this country and not hear of a multitude of predictions – invariably wrong – arising from it. Our study will take place during coffee hour.

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. -Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
