We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. We are very pleased to have Father Paul Burholt and his wife, Matushka Gabrielle, visiting with us this morning. Fr. Paul is a mission priest in Atlanta with the OCA. This is the first time that a priest outside of our Diocese has visited St. Nicholas, so today is something of a milestone. Welcome, Father and Matushka!
2. If you have children, and are interested in summer activities for them, the Diocese offers several opportunities: summer camp at Camp Nazareth; an altar servers retreat in Johnstown, and a new retreat for young women offered at the same time as the altar servers retreat, but in Windber, Pennsylvania. If you are interested any of these opportunities, see Fr. James.

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. -Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
