

Announcements

We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. Next Friday and Saturday Pani and I will be in Atlanta to participate in the conhssecration of the new church building at our mother parish, St. Elizabeth Orthodox Church. This should be a very exciting event, and an opportunity to spend some time with brother priests and our bishop, His Grace Bishop Gregory. We will be back for Divine Liturgy on Sunday morning! If something arises while I am gone, don't hesitate to call me.
2. Next Sunday we will continue with our series of homilies regarding the healing of the soul, when we will discuss the Church as Spiritual Hospital. I hope that this series is edifying to you. If you have any questions, I'll be happy to discuss it with you.

Post Communion Prayers

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. - Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
