

Announcements

We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. Those who wish to participate in the reading of post-communion prayers please gather before the icon of the Theotokos at the iconostasis after the veneration of the cross at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy.
2. As much as we hate to think about it, our annual exile will begin after Liturgy on June 30. While it is not much fun, please plan to be here that day, both for the worship, and to help with the move. Many hands make light work is the phrase we are looking for, I think.
3. If anyone has any interest in sending kids to summer camp at Camp Nazareth or the Diocesan Altar Boy retreat, please see Fr. James.
4. Upcoming at St. Nicholas:

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. - Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
