

Announcements

We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. Those who wish to participate in the reading of post-communion prayers please gather before the icon of the Theotokos at the iconostasis after the veneration of the cross at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy.
2. Today's bulletin carries a schedule for readers and for coffee hour. Hopefully, this will let everyone know when they are assigned to something. If you want to be added to a list, let Father know. If you cannot be present on a day you are assigned, let Father know that as well.
3. Our bi-weekly study of the Book of Revelation will hopefully continue today during coffee hour. Coffee hour Bible studies are a little problematic though. If anyone has a suggestion of a better day or time, let me know.

Post Communion Prayers

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. - Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
