We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. An update on Bob and Sharon Piljay: On Tuesday, Sharon underwent surgery to remove a tumor, which was thought to be responsible for the seizures she has been having. One result of the surgery is difficulty with memory and speech, due to swelling of her brain. The swelling is expected to subside over the next week and her doctors believe that she will then regain those abilities, although she will be in rehab for a while. Please continue to pray fervently for her and Bob.
2. For those who may be interested: there will be a women's retreat at St. Mary of Egypt Orthodox Church in Atlanta on Saturday, October 20. The subject will focus on the subject of "A Christian Ending to Our Lives". A flyer describing the retreat is available in the narthex.

+++++

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. -Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
