

Announcements

We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. I need to meet with members of the parish council briefly at the conclusion of Liturgy.
2. During coffee hour we will begin fall adult education, meeting every other Sunday during coffee hour. Today we will focusing on two phrases from scripture that one of our members asked about. The first is "many are called, but few are chosen". The other asks: "what are "the keys to the kingdom?" In November we will begin a study of the Divine Liturgy, taking it part by part and discussing the meaning and history of each section.
3. Please continue to pray for each other and for the mission. In particular remember Maria Sumner as her chrismation approaches.

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. - Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
