

Announcements

We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. Believe it or not, it is time to start thinking about our parish feast day, St. Nicholas Day. While the feast itself falls on December 6, we will observe it on the following Sunday, December 7. If anyone would like to step in and coordinate the festivities, please tell Fr. James.
2. If you have not made a pledge yet for next year, please consider doing so. Not only does it give us an idea how much money we will have to budget with for the coming year, but under the new bylaws one of the qualifications to be a member at St. Nicholas is that a person or family helps support the Church. Bear in mind that the pledge is not binding, and if it becomes necessary for a person to contribute less than his or her pledge there are no consequences to that. Please consider this prayerfully, and deliver your pledge card to Fr. James, who will also answer any questions that you may have.

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. - Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
