

Announcements

We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. In the narthex of the church you will find stewardship forms. Please take one and carefully consider what pledge you may be able to make for St. Nicholas during 2013. The steering committee is looking ahead, and knowing our financial situation going forward will be a great help in making plans for the future.
2. Just a reminder to anyone who is thinking about going to the consecration of our Bishop-elect, Archimandrite Grigorios. Not only are hotel rooms scarce, but reservations must be made for the banquet which follows the consecration. See me if you are thinking about going.
3. Post-communion prayers will be offered after the veneration of the Cross at the conclusion of Divine Liturgy, in front of the icon of the Theotokos.

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. -Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
