1. As Pani Susan and I consider our blessings during this Nativity, we count as one of the greatest the loving, warm and devout people of St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. While I do not say it as often as I should, each and every one of you are wonderful people. Through God's grace and the labors of each person in this church, St. Nicholas has become a thriving mission, pious and God-loving. We love you all and thank you.
2. There will not be vespers this coming Wednesday night. Our usual schedule of services will resume on Saturday, December 31.
3. Those who wish to participate in the reading of post-communion prayers please gather before the icon of the Theotokos at the iconostasis after the veneration of the cross at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. -Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
