We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. I hope your celebration of the Nativity was wonderful and fulfilling in many ways. For those who came to some of the services that we held on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, thank you for being a part of what was a very great blessing. Remember that our celebration of this great feast continues until January 5, when we fast in anticipation of the Theophany on January 6.
2. The Theophany itself marks the beginning of the season when we traditionally bless our homes. Lent begins very early this year, so the period for home blessings is relatively short, from January 6 until February 14. See Father James about scheduling a time for your home.
3. This week at St. Nicholas:

Thursday, December 31	7:00 p.m. – Vespers Liturgy for the Feast of the Circumcision
Saturday, January 2	5:00 p.m. – Vespers
Sunday January 3	Sunday before the Theophany (Divine Liturgy, 10:00 am)
